THE CLOTHING TRADE.

OF T. MC'TEER & CO., GETTING IN THEIR FALE AND WINTER STOCK.

One of the busiest places in Knoxville is the mammoth Clothing House of J. T. McTcer & Co. Those who lave not been within this establishment in the last few weeks have no idea of the extent of the clothing trade of Knoxville. All hands are now busy unpacking, arranging and repacking goods. A glance at the shipping bills show its destination to be over all parts of East Tennessee and in all the adjoining States. The wholesale trade of this house is simply immense and is assuming larger proportions every day. Probably no business in Knoxville has increased so rapidly within the last five years as has J. T. McTeer & Co's.

It would be out of the question to attempt an enumeration of even the different styles and qualities of goods to be found at McTeer's.
